BODY FOUND IN THE BAY

Probably a Case of Accident
---Coroner's Jury Hears Testimony.

Jose de Ponte, the Portuguese who was convicted in police court on Tuesday of conducting a "blind pig" on Punchbowl, the arrest having been made on Saturday night by License Inspector Fennell, was found dead in the harbor yesterday morning.

At first it was suggested that de Ponte may have committed suicide, but at the inquest last night circumstances were brought to light to indicate that death came accidentally. De Ponte had been drinking heavily all day Tuesday after his conviction, and at 5 p. m. when he was last seen by his acquaintances, he was quite drunk. It is thought he wandered down to the waterfront, and in his drunken condition fell off the wharf into the harbor. There were certain indications that death was due to an accident and the jury so found.

De Ponte was to have appeared in court yesterday morning for sentence. At 9 o'clock his attorney was in court waiting for him, when it was announced that his body was at the morgue. The case was at once stricken from the calendar by Judge Andrade. At the inquest last night several witnesses were examined, including the deceased's sister. She had been with him late in the afternoon and last saw him, somewhat drunk, about 5 o'clock. The body was found in the harbor half way between the Alakea wharf and the lighthouse.

At the inquest Dr. Emerson, police surgeon, stated that the body gave evidence of death having occurred at least twelve hours previous to his examination. The examination was made at 10 a. m., which would place the time of death at about 10 p. m. Tuesday night. He found no bones broken and no bruises on the body.

A juror wanted to know whether the doctor knew whether the man had committed suicide or met with foul play. The doctor could not answer.

Uain Napoleon, who is employed at the harbor lighthouse, testified that at 7:10 he went to the harbor to go to work. The boat had gone about half way across when he saw a body alongside the bow. He asked a man to take hold. Nobody would do so. Napoleon put a rope around the body and pulled it ashore and tied it to the wharf.

Chas. Dudoit Jr., also employed at the lighthouse, testified to similar details as the previous witness. He said he was afraid to touch the body, as it was the first time he had ever seen a body floating in the water.

A. Andrade, a painter, saw the deceased on the postoffice corner just after his case in police court was decided. De Ponte spoke about liquor and said it got a man crazy. One day he had been drinking and went to the Dillingham wharf and fell over some lumber. When he awoke he found he had almost fallen into the water. He said, "I almost got drowned through drinking."

Andrade said he saw De Ponte in a saloon and then again in another saloon at the corner of Hotel and Manuakea street with another bottle of wine. He thought de Ponte had been drinking a little too much. He saw him the last time about 2 p. m. Witness said de Ponte drank a great deal. Never had heard him say anything about taking his life. He acted as if he didn't care about his case.

"I don't think that he would throw himself over the wharf," said Andrade. "His experience at the Dillingham wharf seems to show that he would not want to get drowned. The men I saw him drinking with were old friends of de Ponte's."

August Santos said he saw de Ponte on Tuesday afternoon. This was after 5 o'clock near King and Smith streets. He yelled out to me in a joshing way: "I want to fight with you today." I joshed back and said, "Oh, you're too drunk today, I couldn't fight you now." I was driving a wagon and I went along. Witness said de Ponte was a drinking man. He was walking toward the fishmarket when I left him.

Vapo-Cresolene

Established 1876

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis
Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria
Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach?

It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.

SUIT DROPPED BY TERRITORY

Discontinuance Submitted in the Action Against Plantation.

The Territory has dropped its suit against the Makee Sugar Company of Kauai in connection with the dispute arising out of a leasehold on lands at Kapaa and which were settled by the Molokans, who ultimately proved that they were not to be included in the ranks of successful colonists and went back to California.

The question at issue was whether an extension of lease for a period of one year covered a strip of rice land, it being the contention of the Makee Sugar Company that it covered the rice land and the Territory taking the stand that it did not.

The trial of the case was begun before Judge Robinson and it was after Senator George Fairchild, manager of the Makee Sugar Company, had been placed upon the stand and given his testimony as to the circumstances surrounding the extension of the lease, that Attorney General Hemenway and his deputy, Judge Whitney, decided that the stand of the Territory was not well taken and the submittal of a discontinuance upon the part of the Government followed.

Meat Supply Suit.

The suit of Ah Hoy against Dr. J. H. Raymond for $5000 damages, growing out of a meat supply deal in Wailuku, is drawing to a close before Judge De Bolt and a jury. The case has been on trial for about a week. Dr. Raymond is represented by A. G. M. Robertson. Ah Hoy's attorneys are City and County Attorney Cathcart and First Deputy City and County Attorney Milverton, although the case is one of private practice. Willie Crawford of the City and County Attorney's office has also been in constant attendance throughout the trial. The testimony in the case has all been presented and the instructions settled. Arguments will be made today.

DIFFERENCES ADJUSTED.

City Engineer Gere and Road Overseer Paele of Koolahpoko went over to Koolau yesterday to take up the matter of the repairs to the Koolau roads and the Waiahole bridge over which there has been a controversy for a week. It is understood that all differences have been adjusted and that the work will go ahead without delay or further trouble.
